

The Shire is seeking nominations for representation on an Aboriginal Reference Group. This Group will provide crucial insights for decision-makers on matters affecting the Aboriginal people, facilitate cultural recognition projects, and provide a first point of contact for the Shire on cultural matters.

Note: The nomination form asks you to indicate your address, age bracket, gender and other personal details. This information will be kept confidential and will only be used to assess diverse representation on the Group.

Nominations close Friday 15 March, 2024.
