Official Opening
Hotham Way Tourist Route
Saturday, 12 September 2009

Community Groups are being asked to express their interest in participating in the Official Launch of the Hotham Way at the Old School in Bannister Road, Boddington, from approx 11.30am until 3.30pm.

There will be a convey of vehicles leaving Pingelly and Pinjarra, all arriving at Boddington for the festive opening.

Community groups who wish to set up a display to exhibit their association or cause may apply. Community groups who wish to set up Food Stalls, such as hamburgers, hot dogs, hot lamb rolls, fairy floss, etc may also apply (drinks already taken).

Local arts and crafts as well as local producers may also wish to exhibit commodities, such as olive oil, wine, fresh fruit and vegetables, etc. Priority will be given to local groups before being offered for tender outside the local community. Local groups mean any enterprise along the Pinjarra, Dwellingup, Boddington, Wandering and Pingelly route.

Those wishing to apply may contact Stacie Sullivan at the Old School on 9883 8246 or email Stacie@boddingtonoldschool.org.au
