

FACT SHEET

The Australian Sports Foundation Ltd (ASF)

What is the ASF?

The Australian Sports Foundation Ltd (ASF) is a company established in 1986 by the Australian Government to 'support the development of sport in Australia'.

What does the ASF do?

The ASF can offer an avenue of tax deductibility to incorporated, non-profit organisations that are keen to register and undertake a fundraising campaign to develop a sport related project.

How does the ASF do this?

The ASF is listed in Division 30, Section 30–90 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (ITAA). When projects are registered with the ASF, unconditional donations of $2 or over to the ASF are tax deductible. Donors can nominate a registered project as their preferred beneficiary. The ASF can issue discretionary grants to actively fundraising project organisations six times per year.

Who benefits?

Your project, the donor and Australian sport all benefit. Since 1986, grants totalling in excess of $220 million have been made to Australian sport.

Can any other organisation offer this?

No. The ASF is the only organisation listed in the Sport and Recreation section of the ITAA that can offer this unique tax advantage for sports fundraising.
