Who can apply?

- an incorporated organisation; or
- a group auspiced through an incorporated organisation (with written acknowledgement)

Ineligible organisations include:

- an organisation which failed to acquit previous Shire of Boddington funding; or
- an organisation which has already received the maximum allocation of funding from the Community Grant Scheme in the same financial year.

What can I apply for?

Applications must be from an eligible organisation and be for no more than $2,000 in any single financial year. The funding will support up to 75% of total project costs. In-kind services and volunteer labour are eligible components of the total project costs. Successful projects will meet at least one defined priority area or have clearly identified and evidenced the need for the project.

Ineligible project costs include:

- operational expenditure;
- deficit funding or retrospective costs;
- fundraising or political activities;
- alcohol;
- development or improvement to school facilities, or costs associated in delivering the normal curriculum;
- projects not delivered in Boddington;
- projects that have already commenced;
- projects that duplicate an existing or similar project/service within the community;
- items benefiting an individual; or
- a project that may cause offence to others or cause the Shire's name to be in disrepute.

Priority Areas

Funding is for undertaking projects and programs within the Shire of Boddington or that provide benefit to residents and visitors of the Shire of Boddington. Projects will be expected to meet priority areas identified within the Shire's Community Strategic Plan, and include, but are not limited to the following areas:

- building capacity within local community groups, volunteers and residents;
- supporting our young people;
- supporting our older people;
- providing opportunity to be healthy and promote wellbeing;
- supporting and encouraging cultural diversity and inclusion;
- developing and attracting art projects and increasing participation;
- generally building the strength, engagement and cohesion of the community;
- encourage tourism and increase visitation;
- activate local businesses and main streets; and
- improve conserve and promote heritage.

How are applications assessed?

Applications will be assessed according to:

- the level of community benefit;
- the level to which it addresses an evidenced need;
- long term sustainability;
- appropriateness of the project financial statement;
- partnerships, collaborations, community engagement and involvement or other funding sources that have been secured;
- capacity to deliver the project.

Where projects are evidenced to support additional outcomes identified within the Shire's Strategic Plan, the project will be highly regarded.

Some projects, either in their entirety or elements of the project may not be eligible for funding. They are:

- projects that have already commenced;
- recurrent maintenance or operating costs;
- projects that are considered to be private, commercial, individual or state government core responsible;
- elements that may be considered offensive; and
- fundraising, political or loan repayments.
