I was born in South Africa. I worked at a Power station as a clerk, secretary and procurement officer.

2002-2012 in Indonesia. I worked as a consultant for 3 years as a building maintenance adviser and developed their recycling system. I served on DCF doing fundraising for orphanages, operations and eye clinics in the local communities.

2012 we moved to Boddington. I was the Arts Council President for 4 years, treasurer for 2. I owned the Rusty Camp oven cafe for 3 years. We ran the senior's food program during covid from there.

I'm the President and founder of the Boddington RRR which put Boddington in the spotlight for the last 3 years

I'm the president and co-founder of the Boddington Progress group which organises the annual medieval Fayre and plays in town hall.

The Laperwest games are played on our property which brings an average of 1500 visitors to town annually

I do event coordination and catering as well as sheep farming for an income. I've served on council for the last 3.5 years.
